LONDON JURY FREES WOMAN IN SLAYING

Verdict Finds Mrs. Elvira Barney Innocent in Death of Lover

PROMINENT IN SOCIETY

Victim, Defendant Both Well-Known, Jurors Out but Two Hours.

By The Associated Press

LONDON, July 6—Mrs. Elvira Dolores Barney, accused of murdering her lover, Thomas William Scott Stephen, was acquitted by a jury today of both murder and manslaughter counts against her.

She also was exonerated on another indictment charging intent to do Stephen grievous bodily harm.

The jury was out a little less than two hours.

Stephen, son of a prominent financier, was fatally shot in Mrs. Barney's apartment on the night of May 31.

The defense was that the pistol was discharged accidentally as the two struggled for its possession. Mrs. Barney testified that she had threatened to commit suicide and that Stephen, seizing her pistol from its hiding place, had started to leave the apartment when she pursued him.

Courtroom Crowded

Because of the prominence of both Stephen and Mrs. Barney the trial had attracted great crowds since Monday when it began. The spectators for the most part were persons prominent in society and in the arts.

The defendant was discharged immediately after the verdict was given but Justice Humphreys, who presided, advised her not to leave Old Bailey until the crowds had been cleared from the streets in the vicinity.

When she realized that the jury had acquitted her, Mrs. Barney collapsed and was carried from the courtroom practically unconscious.

Lady Mullens, her mother, also collapsed but was revived.

Justice Humphreys charged the jury today that unless it were es

MacDonald Becomes Arbitrator of Difference Between France, Germany.

By The Associated Press

LAUSANNE, SWITZERLAND, July 6—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain became the virtual arbitrator of the debts and reparations dispute today when France and Germany laid their cases in his hands.

For days Mr. MacDonald has been working at high pressure to effect a compromise between the new nations. Yesterday he delivered what amounted to an ultimatum by declaring that there would have to be a settlement by Thursday because he was going home that night.

The French are sponsors of a plan which would make cancellation of reparations conditional upon revision by the United States of the debts due her from the allies. Germany has declined to accept any proposal linking reparations and the allies debts.

France proposed that Germany deposit a bond of several billion marks with the World bank in lieu of reparations annuities to be distributed among the governments receiving reparations and used for the economic reconstruction of Europe.

All After Jobs

(Will Rogers Special)

CLAREMORE, Okla., July 6.—Yesterday was primary day here in town, both Democratic and also Republican (if anyone was humorous enough to run on such a ticket here). There is more Democrats here in Rogers County running for office than in both Chicago's fiascos.

Looks like the tax payers in the United States are the only folks hiring any help nowadays. Private business when it don't do any business don't use anybody. But the less business the public has the more we hire to tend to it.

There is only one county institution that needs enlarging and that's the insane place and put us all in there till we know enough to cut out at least 50 per cent of our governing expenses.

Youthful Scion of Millionaire Family Commits Suicide at Winston-Salem.

By The Associated Press

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., July 6—Smith Reynolds, 20-year old heir to the R. J. Reynolds tobacco millions, ended a spectacular career here early today with a bullet wound through his head.

The youthful scion of one of North Carolina's richest families died in a hospital four hours after being brought there from his home at Reynolda, the family estate near here.

A. B. Walker of Winston Salem told authorities Reynolds shot himself almost within sight of his bride of a few months, the former Libby Holman, Broadway torch singer.

Walker, who was spending the night at Reynolds home, said they were preparing to retire about 1 a. m. and that he was closing the windows on the first floor of the palatial home when Reynolds appeared on a balcony outside his bedroom above. A moment later there came the sound of a muffled shot and Mrs. Reynolds screamed that her husband had been shot.

Autopsy Ordered

Dr. W. N. Dalton, coroner of Forsythe county, ordered an autopsy early today. He said he had not decided whether an inquest was necessary and that the autopsy was to determine the direction of the bullet.

When the autopsy was completed Dr. Dalton announced it disclosed the bullet entered the

NAVY AIRSHIP SENT TO HUNT FOR YACHT

Dirigible Akron Searches for Racing Boat Missing More Than Week

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 6—The naval airship Akron had joined coast guard boats in search of the ketch Curlew, long overdue in the ocean race from Montauk Point to Bermuda.

On government orders the Akron took to the air last night and will cover most of the territory between here and Bermuda. She will remain aloft three days if necessary. Her course is being directed by coast guard vessels already engaged in the search.

The Curlew, sailing out of Throgs Neck, N. Y., started the race to Bermuda from Montauk Point, Long Island, a week ago Saturday along with 29 rivals. All the others reached Bermuda last week, some of them as early as Tuesday. An unofficial entrant in the race, the Bermuda fisherman, Spanish Rose, reached Bermuda yesterday morning after being blown off her course and becalmed. Some sailors thought the Curlew might have gone through the same adventures.

25 Pennies Morral Bank Loot; Mower Is Missing

A BURGLAR who last night obtained 25 pennies from the Morral bank and a thief who Monday night stole a mowing machine from a hayfield were sought today as authorities investigated the two freak crimes. A Morral grocery burglary which netted a burglar nothing also was being investigated.

The Morral bank, which a year ago yielded 90 pennies to a burglar and which has been looted of a total of $3,800 in two recent holdups, yielded the pennies and an automatic pistol to an intruder last night or this morning. The loot was taken from a till in the counter after a burglar had gained entrance by breaking a glass and raising a window.

Authorities believe the same burglar forced entrance to a rear room on the Red & White grocery in Morral last night only to be confronted by a bolted door which prevented him from entering the store room. Nothing was missing from the rear room according to C. F. Forry, proprietor.

A thief some time Monday night stole a mowing machine from a field at the home of Glen Born of near LaRue. The theft was reported to authorities this morning by Born. The machine had been left in the field for the night after Born had finished work Monday. When he returned to the field it was gone.

MarionMenFind 27-Inch Rattler on Fishing Trip

A broad jump which his friends say would have established a new Olympic record was credited to Wayne W. Bierce of Avondale avenue Monday afternoon while fishing in a small stream in the northwestern part of the county. Bierce almost picked up a rattlesnake when he reached for a fish pole which had fallen to the ground.

Bierce, D. B. Clark and Richard Clark of Thompson street were fishing along the stream when Bierce, stooping to pick up a pole, saw only a few feet away a diamond black rattler coiled ready to strike.

One leap, his friends said, landed Bierce out of range of the snake. Seizing a fish pole he struck the snake on the head but the blow only served to anger the reptile. Hissing and with its rattles shaking it prepared to strike when a second blow stunned it so it could be picked up and placed in a wire covered bucket.

Recovering after being placed in the bucket, it struck continually at the wire cover of the bucket in an effort to reach its captors. Killed by the men later, it measured 27 inches in length and had six rattlers and a button according to its captors.

Rattlesnakes are not common in this vicinity although fishermen along this stream say they have seen specimens on several occasions.

WET BLOC SEEKS TO SPEED BEER RETURN

Leaders To Petition for Immediate Action as Revenue Producer.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 6—A meeting of the house Republican wet bloc attended by 50 members today agreed to petition Speaker Garner and Representative Snell, the Republican leader, for immediate action on beer for revenue legislation.

The meeting, called by Representative LaGuardia of New York and Britten of Illinois, caucused for nearly two hours behind closed doors. Then a sub-committee of five headed by Representative William E. Hull of Illinois was named to draft the petitions.

Britten said the petitions will go also to Chairman Sumners of the judiciary committee, Chairman Pou of the rules committee and Chairman Collier of the ways and means committee.

FAIL TO AGREE ON RELIEF BILL

Conferences Between Hoover and Legislative Leaders End in Failure.

GARNER GIVES REPORT

Goes Before House To Defend Course: Statement by President Forecast

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 6—Speaker Garner took the house floor today amid cheers from the Democratic side to recite the events occurring at the White House conferences on relief.

The speaker addressed his colleagues after prolonged conferences between congressional leaders and the Chief Executive had failed to break a deadlock on the legislation which is holding up adjournment of congress.

"It hasn't been customary since I've been a member of congress for the President to call members to the White House to discuss legislation agreed on in conference," Garner began.

"However, I do think it was proper for members to accept that invitation.

"It's not the best custom. I do not think it is quite in keeping with the Constitution," he added.

Veto Reported Ready

The reference was to an invitation extended by President Hoover yesterday for congressional leaders to confer with him at the White House on the relief legislation. The chief executive was understood to be ready to veto it in its present form.

There were strong indications that President Hoover was preparing to issue a statement outlining his position.

A two-hour conference between President Hoover and senate and house leaders on the $2,122,000,000 Wagner-Garner relief bill broke up today with a breach still existing between the legislative and executive branches.

Speaker Garner, co-author of the bill, at first told newspapermen with considerable emphasis as he left the White House that "We did not reach an agreement."

Garner said later, however, that the conferees and the President were virtually in agreement upon all points in the huge measure except the section dealing with loans to individuals.

"The President is [illegible] adamant in opposition to this provision."

Garner said the next step would be to call back the [illegible]

POLICEMAN SLAIN IN 3-HOUR GUN BATTLE

Riot Guns, Tear Gas Used To Capture Wild Man; "Did It for Fun," He Says.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 6 — A sniper whose rifle and pistols killed one policeman, wounded another and kept at least a hundred more at bay for three hours finally was shot in the arm early today, surrendered and said simply that he had tried "to start some fireworks."

In his house just five blocks from the capitol, he ejected a son at pistol point, locked the doors and fought off death and capture despite riot guns, machine guns and tear gas bombs.

After marine corps sharpshooters had reinforced the major portion of the capital's police, the gas and wounds forced him into the open. As he was put into a cell to await an inquest today he said:

"I just did it to have some fun, to start some fireworks."

He gave his name as [illegible] Long. [illegible] Long's captors, [illegible] a police rookie, "was fatally" wounded with a bullet in his forehead while A. C. Poulson, another private on the force, was shot through the arm and chest.

Long's wife, prostrated in a hospital, could give no explanation of her husband's actions save to tell police that "he was always a mean man."

Only luck saved him from death. Several times he rushed from the house in clouds of tear gas to get fresh air. Once he dashed out, while 18 riflemen in the park across the street shot at him.

He ran from floor to floor, window to window, shooting at any one in sight and appearing somewhere else as soon as the fire was concentrated on his last stand.

Searchlights throwing the house into brilliant outline failed to help the sharpshooters' aim.

Several police and bystanders, including an [illegible] girl, were treated at the hospital for [illegible] Long, who said he was [illegible]

SOUTHERN OHIO COUNTIES FACE FLOOD MENACE

Heavy Rains Send Buckeye Streams Ramping Out of Banks

HOMES ARE INUNDATED

Kansas, Nebraska Are Also Threatened as Torrential Rainfall Feeds Rivers

By The Associated Press

PORTSMOUTH, O., July 6. Three southern Ohio counties—Pike, Adams and Scioto—were threatened with serious flood situations today as every small stream was on a rampage and two large rivers threatened to reach flood levels.

Although homes in Pike county were inundated and the Scioto and Ohio rivers were rising rapidly, no loss of life was reported. Damage to livestock and growing crops was reported heavy.

The Ohio river, the largest stream in this section, was rising at the rate of 2½ inches an hour. The Scioto also was rising rapidly and thirteen [illegible] on a rampage in several places.

The Scioto trail main road between Columbus and Portsmouth was partially closed when the Scioto washed out a culvert and part of the road near Sargent, forcing traffic to detour several miles.

While the Ohio was rising rapidly it was not believed it would cause any serious damage as the surrounding lowlands were flooded. Flood stage here is 50 feet. The river is expected to reach 45 feet. Should it reach 55 feet the western part of the city will be isolated.

Swelled by heavy rains over the week end, the streams in this vicinity were further swollen by rains of near cloud burst proportions last night. Nearly six inches of rain has fallen since Sunday night.

The villages of Otway and Harden in Adams county were still under water and residents were forced to move to and from their homes in boats in some sections of the town. No loss of life was reported here, however.

At Cincinnati the Ohio river reached a stage of 22 feet early today and was expected to reach a crest of 30 or 35 feet within the next several hours. Flood stage, however, is 52 feet.

Nearly four inches of rain fell in the Cincinnati area since Sunday and farmers feared it might spoil some of their crops.

CHICAGO CUB STAR SHOT BY WOMAN

Unrequited Love Seen as Motive for Attack on William Jurges

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 6. William Jurges, star shortstop for the Chicago Cubs, narrowly escaped death today when a young woman came to his room, shot him twice and then turned the gun on herself. Neither was seriously wounded.

The woman, a pretty brunet, gave her name as Miss Violet Valli of Chicago. She gave her occupation as cashier in a North Side Chicago store. At the hospital where she was taken along with Jurges she refused to say why she shot him.

From the scattered incoherent evidence gathered by the police, it appeared like an unrequited love affair with Jurges spurning the woman's attentions. The police said that she threatened to shoot Jurges and in the struggle for the gun Jurges was shot in the right side and left hand and Miss Valli in the left hand. Dr. John Davis, Cub physician, said the side wound failed to penetrate the vital organs and that no bones were broken by the hand wound.

The shooting occurred in the Carlos hotel, adjacent to Wrigley field, at 11:30 a. m.

Jurges has been one of the bright spots in the Cub drive for the National League pennant. He came to the Cubs from Reading of the International league last year and Manager Rogers Hornsby labeled him as one of the greatest infielders of years.

President William Veeck of the Cubs said Jurges' [illegible] be a heavy blow to the Cubs, who [illegible] their home stand against the [illegible] today but that he hoped he would be able to return to the lineup within a few weeks.

PLEASURE TRIP ENDS IN DEATH

Son of American Telephone & Telegraph Co. Magnate Killed in South Dakota

By The Associated Press

BROOKINGS, S. D., July 6. A vacation trip to Alaska of two sons of American Telephone & Telegraph Co. magnates was interrupted here last night by an auto accident in which one was killed and the other injured.

Edwin Carter, 22, son of F. F. Carter, vice president of the company, died of a broken neck when his automobile crashed through a fence on highway 24 near Aurora after failing to make a turn in the road.

Walter Sherman Gifford, 14 year old son of W. S. Gifford, president of the company, suffered a crushed left arm.

Dr. Pemberton of the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., was expected to arrive today to care for the youth at the request of Mr. Gifford, who was on his way from New York.

Brookings hospital authorities said that while the injury to young Gifford's arm was painful it was not serious. He was resting easily this morning.

The two youths were enroute from New York to Alaska on a pleasure trip. Carter had just graduated from college.

Gifford, just learning to drive, was at the wheel when the accident occurred. He apparently failed to notice the turn in the road and the car plunged into a ditch, jumped a fence and plowed about 75 feet down a field before stopping. It did not overturn.

Carter was thrown from the automobile and his head struck the fence. He was dead when Frank Ryan, Sioux Falls salesman, who was driving behind the youths, reached their side.

LAUNCH PROCEEDINGS FOR BOND ISSUANCE

Sale of $40,000 Relief Bonds Awaits Approval of State Commission.

Preliminary legislation for the issuance of $40,000 in emergency relief bonds for the city and county was adopted yesterday afternoon by the county commissioners.

Further steps toward the sale of the bonds, authorized by the state relief commission to ease the relief situation in the city and county, await the arrival of a representative of the relief commission to assist officials in the preparation of a budget to show how the proceeds of the bonds shall be spent.

It is expected that the city will receive $25,000, the county $15,000. A budget must be approved by the relief commission before the relief money will be available.

LONG DISTANCE FLIGHT MADE IN 18 HOURS

Mattern-Griffin Are Three Hours Ahead of Post-Gatty Record.

HIT BAD WEATHER

First Non-Stop Trip from Western Hemisphere to Berlin.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, July 6. James Mattern and Bennett Griffin, American round the world fliers, landed at Tempelhof airdrome at 5:40 p. m. (11:40 a. m. Marion time) today.

They brought their red, white and blue ship down on the field a little more than 18 hours after leaving Harbor Grace, New Foundland. At this point the fliers were two hours and 55 minutes ahead of the Post and Gatty record which they are attempting to surpass.

More than two hours before they landed they had been sighted over Hanover. Usually the flight from that city is a matter of less than an hour and when they did not appear at Tempelhof within that time those who awaited them at the field began to worry.

Hit Bad Weather

It developed, however, that there was some bad weather between here and Hanover, and the globe girdlers had been obliged to go out of their way.

The Mattern-Griffin ship was the first flown by Americans to reach Berlin on a non-stop flight from the western hemisphere and officials at Tempelhof airdrome took note of the extraordinary occasion by raising the Stars and Stripes as the "Century of Progress" taxied across the field.

A band played the Star Spangled Banner.

The crowd on hand was not very large because the time of the landing generally was unknown and an intermediate stop had been expected because of storm conditions in north Germany.

Ambassador Frederick M. Sackett, who had come to the field when informed the fliers had been sighted at Hanover, unfortunately had left 15 minutes before the landing.

Although Mattern and Griffin took more than 18 hours to reach Harbor Grace from New York, they reduced the Post-Gatty margin of over four hours on that trip, by cutting out the intermediate stops to the German capital.

Post and Gatty spent 11 hours and eight minutes sleeping in Berlin and the Mattern-Griffin team may gain more time by proceeding immediately toward Moscow, which they plan to do, weather permitting.

German officials on the field were jubilant when the American plane came down. Several of them ran out to where it rolled to a stop and thrust foaming seidles of beer at the fliers. To their amazement the Americans waved it aside.

"What we want," said Griffin, "is a good long drink of water. That beer looks good but it might not act so well. We haven't had anything but oranges since we left New York."

Hermann Koehl, who took the airplane Bremen across to Greenly Island a couple of years ago, was on hand to greet his friend Mattern, whom he had met in Detroit.

When the crush was over Griffin and Mattern were taken to the airport hotel where somebody gave them tooth brushes, soap and towels.

Mattern, who lives at Fort Worth, Tex., and Griffin of Oklahoma City shot away from the airport at Harbor Grace on the second leg of a flight they hope to complete in six days, to smash the globe girdling mark of 8 days, 15 hours, 51 minutes set by Harold Gatty and Wiley Post.

Risked Everything

Behind schedule, they staked everything on their motor and their skill in combatting the elements. They carried no boat, parachutes or other safety device.

Escaping disaster by a narrow margin, they taxied into Harbor Grace yesterday at 2:38 p. m. (Marion time) after being lost in fog for about four hours. They hastily refuelled, ate, checked their craft and started the ocean flight at 4:50 p. m.

They had time to make up for they consumed 10 hours 37 minutes in the flight from New York to Harbor Grace, whereas Gatty and Post did it in 6 hours, 57 minutes.

REIGN BONDS OW STRENGTH

Probable Agree- ms Securities in York London.

United Press — July 6—Persistent eign government the securities mar today after shares bears slump during ernment bonds were been heavily bought anticipation of an ement of a repara at Lausanne cable advices to Paris were less any rate the London served to able short covering York stock market Telephone after sink points to a new low and by early after of a point or so appeared in American Can, Allied Chemical, Case and Standard Oil of California, Oils which have resisted selling recently were a conspicuously firm group as fractional advances appeared in Standard of N J Texas Corp Atlantic Refining Royal Dutch Pure Oil Consolidated Continental and Socony Vacuum Some of the mining issues were again firm and leading industrials and rails selling somewhat above yesterday's close included U S Steel National Biscuit Union Pacific New York Central and others. International Shoe was a soft spot dropping 6 points

With business suffering the paralyzing effects of midsummer financial quarters looks either to Lausanne or Washington for developments that might help security prices and with indications of a temporary deadlock at the national capital over the relief measure it was felt that developments from that quarter such as adjournment of congress would be considerably delayed

GRAIN PRICES MOVE HIGHER

Torrential Rains in Southwest and Rust Infections Cause Advance

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO July 6—Grain price averages higher early today influenced by torrential rains in domestic winter wheat harvest territory southwest There are also reports of black rust infections and spread in some of the important wheat producing provinces of Jugoslavia Opening unchanged to ½ lower wheat afterward scored some gain Corn started a off to a shade up and later rose slightly

With the big rain falls in United States wheat harvest regions already soaking for weeks past the wheat market soon developed an upward trend today though under a severe handicap from trade curtailment because of heavily increased taxes on all future delivery grain dealings Particular notice was taken of advices saying that in Texas the harvest weather was the worst in ten years and was likely to cut the state's wheat crop in half In the high plains of Texas the crop was originally estimated at 40 000 000 bushels but that now some specialist is said not more than 14 000 000 bushels would be harvested and the remainder would be almost a total loss

Flood reports from Kansas and Nebraska were also a special stimulus to upturns in wheat value At various places especially in Cottonwood Valley Kas streams were reported washing away large amounts of shocked wheat Extensive damage by hail over wide stretches in Kansas was also reported Corn and oats responded to wheat price gains and to indications of some export business in corn

Provisions borrowed firmness from strength shown by the hog market

WHIPPING OF MEN DEFENDED

Holmes County Thieves Get 20 Lashes, Judge Says Sentence "Justifiable"

By The Associated Press

MILLERSBURG O, July 6—The horsewhipping of two men convicted of stealing, probably the first punishment of this kind imposed in Ohio in 50 years was upheld as justifiable today by the judge who pronounced the sentence

Twenty strokes each were applied yesterday to the backs of William Wynn 48 and his brother Jesse 51 after they expressed preference for the lash instead of 20 days in jail with hard labor and bread and water diet

Common Pleas Judge R B Putnam gave the men their choice of sentences

Choosing the whipping the brothers were led outside the Holmes county jail where their hands were tied high above their heads to the bars over a window

Spectators Jeer

Three hundred spectators booed at first and then stood in silence as Sheriff John Stevens a muscular man applied the lash

Neither of the convicted men appeared to suffer severely and it was apparent that the sheriff did not make the blows unusually heavy

However Stevens twice broke a light buggy whip on William and then finished the punishment of the brothers with a black snake lash Later he led the men to the county line and on instructions from the judge ordered them never to return

The brothers who had spent 29 days in the jail on a charge of stealing a refrigerator and selling it for $3 admitted their guilt when arraigned before Judge Putnam The judge inquired if they had been given good meals and treated well in the jail Very fine the prisoners answered

Taking the attitude that an ordinary jail sentence might be a pleasure rather than a punishment Judge Putnam sentenced them to 20 days at hard labor with a diet of bread and water

He followed the regular sentence by offering the whipping as optional punishment Well choose the whipping the brothers replied

Defends Sentence

Later the judge explained that while there is no Ohio statute for a whipping sentence there is nothing to prevent a prisoner from accepting such punishment as an alternative to the usual penalty

In a further statement Judge Putnam upheld the lashing as justified by crime conditions and said he was prepared to stretch all laws until they crack

His statement said Holmes county has suffered with a wave of crime prevalent throughout the county, and out of all proportion to its population.

ACCIDENT VICTIM PLACED IN JAIL

George Wilson, 30, giving his home as New York City who was taken to the City hospital late Sunday afternoon suffering from head injuries received when his car collided with a telephone pole on East Center street, was taken to police headquarters this morning where he will be held, Police Chief W E Marks said, while an investigation is being made regarding insurance papers and drivers license found in his possession issued to W A Martin Police are also investigating what appears to be a bullet hole through the rear of his car just above the gasoline tank

A woman companion who suffered a broken nose and numerous cuts and bruises in the accident is still at the hospital She refused to give either her name or her residence Wilson who said the accident happened when he fell asleep was unconscious when taken to the hospital

NEW FIREMAN AT FETTER HOME HERE

A broad smile which graced the features of George Fetter a fireman at central station when he arrived at the station this morning was explained when he proudly announced that a new fireman had arrived at his home at 723 Delaware avenue yesterday He has not yet been given a name A similar smile was also apparent on the face of Edward Fetter of Pearl street grandfather of the boy who retired several years ago as captain at the central station

Reynolds interest in aviation prompted him to make several airplane jaunts including one about the far east with Jean Assolant French flier He was returning from this trip when Miss Holman went to Hawaii to meet him and they were married there An nouncement of the marriage was not made however until their return to New York several weeks later

Anne Cannon Reynolds shortly after her divorce announced her engagement to B Frank Smith Jr Charlotte hardware man They were married about the same time Miss Holman and Reynolds announced their secret marriage established that the defendant fired the fatal shot with intent to kill she could not be convicted

LONDON JURY FREES WOMAN IN SLAYING

Verdict Finds Mrs Elvira Barney Innocent in Death of Lover.

The charge followed a ninety minute summation by Sir Patrick Hastings the defense counsel who repeated Mrs Barney's own story of her love for Stephen and of the night on which he was killed in her apartment

At the beginning of his charge Justice Humphreys said Sir Patrick's speech for the defense was the finest he ever had heard in a court of law

Sir Patrick had told the jurors they must not be influenced by scandalous stories of Mrs Barney's life

Referred To Marriage

He referred to Mrs Barney's marriage to John Barney an American vaudeville actor from whom she separated after a year

Her life was tragic tied to an American brute whom she could not divorce because the law of this land would not allow it he said

Whatever may have been the character of this man who is dead she loved him

We don't know what her temptations may have been Unpleasant suggestions are easy but we are not all above suspicion Even one of us someday may have a daughter of our own for whom we may have to make excuses not easy to make

Justice Humphreys summing up the evidence said

There is not the smallest doubt that there was a struggle for this revolver This woman is not to be convicted of murder unless it is proved that she fired the fatal shot intending at the time to kill the man at whom she was firing

The case was given to the jury at 2 55 p m

One of the court's last admonitions was that if the gun which killed Stephen had been discharged accidentally in a struggle with Mrs Barney then she might be guilty of manslaughter even though she had no intention of injuring or killing him

The plan of providing work for the unemployed under the stagger system was conceived by Mayor W C Phillians and his two directors early in the year in an effort to keep the relief plan as far as possible from the appearance of a dole It also enabled the city to have work done for which no money was available

Because of the volume of work in the service department program together with the fact that money from the gasoline and automobile tax could be used for the purpose it was decided to provide two days work for each unemployed man for which he would be paid in cash and given work as frequently as the number of men being employed would permit On days when they were not paid with money they were given grocery orders

Streets were repaired catch basins installed and clogged or broken down storm water sewers were relaid by the men under the supervision of an experienced man the most extensive work being the repairing of the storm water sewer system on the east side of North State street from the Erie tracks to the North State street school

The painting of the City hospital inside and out and the planting and care of the 20 acre municipal garden near Windsor street were the two major projects of the safety department all of the labor being paid for with grocery orders The activities also included the building of the hospital garage 132 hours of labor in hauling flour from the J J Curl mill on North Prospect street to the city hall for distribution among the unemployed 368 hours of labor on the Harding Memorial boulevards and 16 hours at the John A Owens Boy Scout camp

Immediately after taking office in January the safety director began plans for painting the hospital and more than three months were required to complete the job. The work was done by the unemployed under the direction of an expert street painter and included the washing of the interior from the basement to the attic, before being painted

Work at the municipal garden included the planting of 160 bushels of potatoes, six bushels of beans 5000 cabbage plants 4000 tomato plants and a quantity of sweet corn

The garden has been cultivated once and will continue to be cultivated by the unemployed in return for grocery orders the safety director said The service department will continue to provide work for the unemployed paying with grocery orders after the gasoline and automobile license fund has become exhausted Service Director Uncapher said today

Two men were pulling and pushing at Nancy hurrying her away from the house Jerry running silently closed up on them with every stride Far over to the righ the machine gun stammered in o action The first bullets whined through the palm leaves just over his head With despair in his heart the pilot flung himself on his face The detective s voice incredibly calm came from behind him

Guess you flying fellers didn t learn much about the war he panted crawling up on hands and knees You were outlined against the moonlit water plain as broad daylight "

We ve go to rescue Nancy declared Jerry vehemently

Sure agreed the imperturbable voice but we can t do it if we re dead Come on let s crawl a mite

A burst of firing sounded from the house behind them echoed from the east by the chatter of another machine gun The two crawling men worked their way pa... y toward the hangar The whole island was now crackling to the sound of gunfire Jerry thought of Emory back there in the beleaguered house Its paper thin walls would offer little protection against the crashing bullets The pilot wished desperately to return to his friend s side But Nancy was somewhere ahead

The vibrant roar of an airplane engine thundered through the night Jerry listened carefully It was the amphibian The two men who had carried Nancy had disappeared in the shadow of the hangar In a few moments it would be too late They d have her in the plane He forgot the snapping bullets which were cutting through the palm leaves above He attempted to rise The iron hand of the detective fell upon his shoulder and forced him back to his knees

Six inches more murmured Stevens impatiently and you d of lost the top of your head Great help aren t you?

At redoubled speed the two scrambled on hands and knees through sand and sawgrass The hangar was close now Its interior blazed with brilliant lights From its open door a wide white apron of light shone across the black waters of the inlet In its reflection glistened the silvery wing of Emory s monoplane standing silently on the hard packed sand thirty or forty feet west of the building

Sudden hope surged into Jerry s heart He quickened his pace veering toward the monoplane They could hear the hammering of the amphibian s engine as she taxied down the runway and into the water

Jerry s muscles quivered with eagerness Now if ever, was the time to run for it Everything depended on being able to seize the monoplane Failing that they would be helpless

Come on he whispered make a dash for our plane

The detective grunted inarticulately Jerry did not wait He rose from his crouch like a sprinter at the starting gun

A large black figure blocked his path that of a guard standing watch over the monoplane But his attention was upon the taxiing amphibian from whose exhaust issued a varicolored ribbon of flame With all the momentum of his plunging body Jerry dived at him The two went down in a tangle beneath the shadow of the great wing

Stevens arriving almost as they fell swung the butt of his gun down with terrific force upon the gangster s head There was a hollow thwack The man s arms relaxed Stevens jerked Jerry to his feet and shoved him into action

In another moment the pilot s flying feet had reached the stirrup beneath the cabin door Fumbling at the handle he became conscious of flashes and spurts of flame which came from every side The slap-slap-slap of bullets was almost continuous He wondered how so many shots could possibly miss him It seemed to take hours and hours to open the cabin door Stevens voice calm and matter-of-fact cut through the inferno of sound

All right son get her started I ll stay here and hold em off

Jerry squirmed into the bucket seat and felt for the starter Cold perspiration beaded his face as it occurred to him that the guards might have disabled the engine to forestall just such an effort to capture the monoplane No use worrying about that now The next few seconds would tell The whirring, churning noise of the turning engine sounded cold and dead Not a single kick out of her Would she never start?

The heavy crash of Stevens service automatic came almost from beneath the cabin floor The old man was still alive then probably crouching beneath the aluminum cowled right wheel as he held the mob at bay

Why didn t the engine start? Churning, churning—would she never take hold? Jerry jarred the throttle desperately ducking instinctively as a bullet tore through the wall of the cabin and snapped close by his head

"Heart of a Wife"

BY ADELE GARRISON

Dicky and Madge Are Curious as to the "Lone Hand" Hugh is Playing in the Effort All Are Making to Trail the Kidnapers.

THERE was panic in the stare I gave Dicky, as I said you mean I must tell Harry about Robert Savarin s legacy to Lillian"

"Who else?" Dicky countered coolly "Think a second Lil s so near a breakdown how that any trifle will turn the scale After this thing is over she could know the source of the money given to the kidnapers Until then let her think Old Phil is putting up the cash. But Harry must know His consent is the only one needed as his feeling in the matter is the only thing involved If it were not for that you know Lillian would accept the legacy gladly"

I knew that better even than did Dicky I had been with Lillian at Robert Savarin s deathbed had seen the worship in the dying man s eyes as he looked at the woman he had come so nearly winning as his own and I knew that she would feel with me the urge of his last wish that his fortune should continue to guard her and her child But the love for her husband had been so great Harry s jealousy of Savarin so keen that the dying artist had realized he could not provide for either Lillian or Marion directly

Dicky s Advice

Yes Dicky was right I could not add a feather s weight of anxiety to Lillian s burden I must face Harry Underwood as I had faced Dicky and with relief at Dicky s calmness under the revelation I began to take heart for the interview with Lillian s husband

You re the only one that s drawn any kind of break out of this mess Dicky commented with an uncanny interpretation of a thought of mine as quickly roused as it was quickly suppressed If you d spilled this either to me or Harry at any other time than an emergency like this there would not have been enough left of you to put through a grinder

Do you think I ought to tell him right away? I asked

No With Phil s offer and the certainty of Hugh s aid—whatever else that hombre is he isn t stingy everything can be taken care of temporarily I believe Dad s idea is to put up a stall in that message I m dropping tomorrow to bring out what the kidnapers really want So there s a conference on in the next half hour to which incidentally Hugh isn t invited

That s because he doesn t want the Brixtons to know he is down here at all I said

Yes I know but I wish I knew the lone hand he said he was playing This thing is like a Chinese puzzle

Oh I said sharply and at Dicky s astonished look I told him of the Chinese whose queer actions Lucy the lame maid at Whitney Hall had seen

It s probably just one of those things Dicky commented On the other hand anything is likely to be of consequence in this crazy quilt Shall we have dinner trays sent up? Nobody s going down to the dining room but I m ravenous I took sandwiches along but they weren t very satisfying for a whole day s flying

I should think not you poor boy I said I ll have the menus sent up right away

I ll take a shower while I m waiting

The Conference

He went into the bathroom and when I had given the dinner order I went to Lillian s sitting room and to Helena s to see if there was anything I could do for either of them I found them both quiet—the numbness that continued anguish brings was mercifully upon them both I guessed—and they were being carefully tended Helena by her husband and her son Lillian by Harry and Mary Neither Noel nor his father was to be seen and Mary rose at my entrance

Do you need me any more Aunt Lillian?" she asked prettily and Lillian smiled wanly at her

No dear I m going to rest until the conference

She wants only him Mary said as she came back to our room with me You wouldn t know she was the same woman when he comes into the room She acts like a tired traveler wanting to lean against something and he surely is a rock

Yes he is I agreed a bit absently for I was anxious to know what Philip Veritzen s reaction had been when he had found Mary and Noel together But Mary said nothing concerning either the father or son and when we had finished our dinner we arranged the room for the conference that we had agreed should be held in our quarters

It was a short conference and Samuel Brixton dominated it by the ... consent of all the others In it ... he asked for the sums of cash that could be raised in the next ... hours and seemed impressed and grateful at Philip Veritzen s offer to make up the remainder

Sam Brixton s Suggestion

But I think myself that they are stalling I said staggeringly at last I think we ought to try a ... saying we can t raise that much in so short a time and that they either must give us more time or make their demands less That ll give us more time anyway and they may come to their senses

"I agree my father said quickly and the rest of us"

We all nodded assent and my father and ... to draft the ... and ... time till Sam Brixton was ... for him

I ll fix it up ... he said hastily

The Mistreatment Charge

The trial of John Hughes Curtis, hapless negotiator in the Lindbergh kidnaping case, has disclosed more fully than ever the seriousness of a handicap that the police have given themselves—the mistreatment charge. It has been made and upheld in many cases. It was given attention in one of the Wickersham commission reports now it has been given an airing in the Curtis case. Mr Curtis has been found guilty of obstructing the course of justice but the police have not come off without blame

In this as in other cases suspicion of their tactics of handling suspects places them in a weak defensive position. Mr Curtis contended that he was abused and refused the right to go to sleep. It is one story there are many others, all too familiar to need retelling. It is sufficient to say that enough of them have been verified to warrant considerate attention to this vicious abuse of delegated power

The mistreatment charge is an additional hurdle in the course of police work. From a relationship in which the victim did not dare to speak against his persecutors there has been a change to a relationship in which the victim realizes that public opinion is on his side. Undoubtedly many cases will arise in which false charges of mistreatment will be made against police

Public sympathy most certainly was not with Mr Curtis as he defended himself against the charge that he impeded justice in the Lindbergh case, yet because New Jersey state police are suspected of brutality in forcing him to make a confession, he is a popular figure. There is no tolerance in the American mind for inquisition methods practiced on the public by its own employes.

The Dark Horse's Secret.

If there were no opportunity to speculate solemnly for weeks and months in advance of all primaries conventions and elections, politics wouldn't be half so much fun. It's the guessing that makes the game

Take the matter of a deadlock, for instance. Probably every political writer in the business suggested at one time or another prior to the Democratic convention that a deadlock wouldn't be surprising

The fact however makes those guesses look foolish now. Only two Democratic candidates for the presidential nomination have failed to get it after achieving a majority. Everyone knew weeks ahead of time that Mr Roosevelt had a majority. Yet deadlock was being talked of up to the minute that William Gibbs McAdoo decided to climb on the Roosevelt bandwagon

Then there are the dark horses, mystical and potent beast of politics. Like smoky wraiths they move silently in the background, always impressing observers with the possibility that they may emerge suddenly from twilight and gallop noisily into the foreground as fairing snorting steeds. Dark horses are indeed a substantial boon to the drama that goes with politics

The word drama is the key to the whole business—to deadlocks dark horses, why politicians act like children and political conventions, particularly Democratic ones turn out to be climaxes of disorder and meaningless enthusiasm. Instinctively people have sought to make of politics something more attractive than what really is a sordid business of swapping influence and henchmen to get behind some individual and make him look like a greater man than he is. So they have dramatized it

A weak candidate who gets a chance to look like somebody because other candidates can't agree is a dark horse—an exceedingly rare bird by the way. Prolonged maneuvering for votes in the dramatic manner becomes a tense deadlock—calling up pictures of giants straining for some slight advantage. After it's all over, the memory leaves one feeling a bit foolish but it was great fun for a while

Where Are You Working?

The census bureau shoves its products over the information counter without benefit of a fanfare. Quietly, last week it told Americans where they were working two years ago. It will be with a pang of remorse that many of them will remember they were working

Three interesting shifts of employment from 1920 to 1930 tell a long story about social trends in as many sentences. There are fewer children and young people employed than there used to be. More women are working. New branches of employment are being opened in more directions than an ordinary observer would guess

The first two shifts are the direct results of increasing economic pressure. It isn't pleasant to say that 44 per cent of all children under 14 years of age were being employed as cheap labor in 1920 but there is a measure of backhanded consolation in knowing that there were only about half as many 10 years later

Productive activity of women which has become mixed up strangely with emancipation of the sex is increasing all the time in proportion to total employment. More and more married women are leaving their homes to work, perhaps the public's apparent determination to drive them back as has been done in many instances since the census was taken has lowered the number which was 29 per cent of all women workers in 1920.

The ubiquitous filling station, besides giving the public an extremely pleasant type of servant for its automotive needs has opened up 70,000 jobs that didn't exist in 1920. It hasn't absorbed all the overflow from the very stable jobs that faded away street car and mining employment but it has helped. More than a few of the remainder probably became insurance agents of whom there were 237,000 in 1930 a surprisingly low figure considering the universality of the type. The rest may have become bank officials there were 38,000 extant when the census was taken. Unfortunately much has happened since then. If it were not for the expense a new census would be entirely in order

The Vice President

It is not an uncommon belief that the presidency of the United States is too great a job for one man. Too many demands for time are made upon him; the fields in which he must walk with accurate knowledge as his intimate companion are too varied and far apart

It is not commonly realized however that the President of the United States has a companion to share his burdens in the person of the vice president. Indeed so quietly useful is the latter official that his elimination would be required to gain a conception of his value

He performs virtually the same function as the French president performs though confronted every minute with the possibility of falling heir to power undreamed of in France. He is in a word the administration's official diner-out contact man and master of ceremonies

His principal duty aside from keeping the political pot a-boiling is to preside over the senate—an important task if a somewhat trying one. In the original conception of the administrative structure the vice president stood on an equal footing with the President the occupant of the office being the individual receiving the second largest number of votes. There has been a radical departure from that conception however. Today a vice presidential candidate runs with the presidential candidate, and the basis of his selection is a wondrous thing to examine

He is a political puppet selected for his qualifications as such. The place of his birth is of as great importance as are his principles. He is used to broaden and to excite interest in the ticket. Congratulations such as they are must be given John Nance Garner present speaker of the house who hopes to become vice president with Franklin D Roosevelt. Mr Garner brings needed strength to the ticket. Who denies that he would be a worthy successor to Charles Curtis if this turns out to be a Democratic year?

Et Tu, Cupid?

Evidence as clever lawyers constantly demonstrate can be made to prove many things not all of them in agreement. There are signs of conflicting conclusions concerning the efforts of economic deflation on that emotion puncturing little madcap Cupid

There have been many tales of scattered families being brought back together by the sobering influence of hard times. Claims have been made that tinsel is being replaced constantly with more dependable substances that economic readjustment has been accompanied by a general revaluation in all fields including companionship of the sexes

It has been easy to believe such accounts. In fact for those who like to occupy themselves with speculations on what should be it has seemed that the times must be propitious for Cupid either as a first visitor or an old acquaintance

Recently several writers have laid claims based on personal observation that Cupid too has been cancelling his orders with the arrow makers. They point to decrease in the issue of marriage licenses to fewer weddings to the scarcity of moonstruck couples strolling in public parks, to a falling off in attendance at all those places where wooing couples used to talk softly and gaze longingly

Obviously the evidence can not be trusted. It speaks with two tongues, neither of them understandable. Here is another of those questions which must be settled in the simple court of common sense if for no other reason than to disclose another good effect of the depression

If the readjustment has affected Cupid at all it has caused him to dismiss his press agent. In his own way but more quietly and with more of an eye to permanence he is doing business as usual. At this stage of the game man is in no condition to look up from the ground where he has been thrown by his economic assassins to bleat "Et tu Cupid?" If betrayal there must be let it be ignored. There must be no breakdown in romance

RURAL CARRIERS

A word of appreciation is due the rural carrier upon whose efficiency so many vacationists depend at this season. This rural mobile [illegible] regular traveling post office. In addition to bringing and collecting letters he sells stamps weighs packages and estimates the postage [illegible] issues money orders and registers letters. His [illegible] order system is ingenious.

The rural [illegible] takes the money and gives a temporary receipt. The letter which is to contain the order is left [illegible] at the post office to which the carrier [illegible] the order is written and placed in the envelope which is then sealed. In a day or two the [illegible] receives the regular receipt slip from the [illegible] together with a few money order blanks [illegible]. A similar method is used for registered letters. Such is the resourcefulness of the department and the carriers that there is practically no service available at a city post office that can not be obtained from the rural carrier.

At first the [illegible] in the country to whom the environment is new has a feeling of apprehension toward the [illegible] methods. When he puts letters in an open box at the side of a grass grown road [illegible] whether they will reach their destination [illegible] city dweller it seems almost like dropping mail into a fire-alarm box. As to [illegible] address it seems incredible that [illegible] up in the open box will ultimately arrive at [illegible] in Europe or Asia. But as the weeks [illegible] letters begin to arrive the vacationists [illegible] eventually they give place to appreciation of the intelligence and dependability of the rural carrier.—New York Sun.

Daily Guide to Health

BY DR. ROYAL S COPELAND

Auto-Intoxication Causes Many Ills.

In a recent article I gave the causes of constipation and advised you as to its prevention. Now I want to tell you some of the complications that are apt to follow in the wake of chronic constipation

A body in which poisons are allowed to accumulate can not be a healthy body. Many unpleasant symptoms occur in the condition known medically as auto intoxication more simply described as self-poisoning which is the result of continued chronic constipation. There may be a constant feeling of fatigue an inability to concentrate the mind mental depression and disturbed sleep

An offensive breath and an unpleasant taste in the mouth are almost constantly associated with neglect to rid the body of its waste. Very often inability to resist infections frequent colds poor eyesight blemishes of the skin any many other minor disorders may be due to constipation

There are even more distressing direct results of constipation such as fissures and piles. Fissures due to constipation may cause severe pain lasting for hours while a spasm of the muscles will sometimes cause such pain that constipation of a very severe character will follow. A physician must be consulted in order to effect a cure

Piles are frequently associated with constipation for pressure on the blood vessels produces inflammation and sometimes the rupture of a vein. Extreme pain nervousness and loss of sleep accompany this condition. Constipation must be corrected and if the symptoms fail to improve a physician should be consulted

It is therefore very important that correct daily habits be maintained. Following are some exercises for the relief of constipation

Lie on the back with the knees bent raise the legs alternately then raise the knees up against the abdomen. Still lying on the back put the legs together straight out before you raise the legs alternately then together

Stand up straight not more than four or five inches from the wall. Raise the knees alternately toward the trunk. Next bend the trunk forward as far as possible then to the right and to the left side. Finally rotate the trunk to the right and then to the left side

These exercises are suitable only to persons in good health but if done properly and regularly I am sure they will help materially in overcoming constipation

Highlights of Ohio History

BY I H GALBRAITH

EARLY OHIO PREACHER

Rev David Jones of Freehold N J is believed to have been the first preacher to visit the Ohio country to preach the gospel. Jones made a tour of the Indian camp in 1772—four years before the Declaration of Independence was signed

The two Moravian preachers, Zeisberger and Heckewelder had been among the Indians prior to Jones coming and they may have preached. It is certain that they had a mission in operation when Jones came in 1772. It also is probable that French priests exploring in this section touched Ohio soil at various points and they too probably preached to the Indians

Jones was with George Rogers Clark and in his journal mentions instructing the Indians. Jones a Welsh Baptist served in the Revolution earning the name of "Fighting Chaplain." He was at Valley Forge and also with Anthony Wayne in the Pennsylvania line

New York Day by Day

BY O O McINTYRE

New York July 6—Grand opera facing a dubious future seems whistling in the dark. Sponsors are admittedly in a quandary over the ultimate outcome. No one thing is responsible for the debacle which it is hoped is temporary. It merely collapsed with the rest of the world

Many believe stars of the past few lush years lacked the well known "it." The contagion of Caruso established box office records. Geraldine Farrar too was a magnet for innumerable. Jeritza Gigli and Lily Pons have drawing power but no so marked. The Metropolitan itself is a gloomy pile

To thrive one must not only attract music lovers but the curious and the extravagant rich who will pay the yearly "fortune" to be ensconced in the stupefying brilliance of the Diamond Horseshoe. Paying for the vanity to be seen is the keystone of the grand opera corner

Real opera lovers are perched in the dizzy tiers of the gallery. They are mostly Italians—Neapolitans chiefly—barbers waiters and small trade men. The faithful followers who will stand in line in the wind and rain from 9 in the morning until the doors open at night

In the year Otto Kahn has faded out of the picture. His successor is Paul D Cravath a distinguished lawyer but without the dynamic fervor for the effects of opulent Otto. Salaries have been slashed for cut jealousies have arisen and the season shortened. Next year a wag says we will have baby grand opera

Near the Metropolitan there used to stand a shawled Niobe known as Crying Mary. Her tear duct control was so perfect she could weep at will. Four years ago she vanished. All successful New York beggars reputedly retire to legendary mansions in New Jersey. And Mary is no exception

Mary has however a worthy successor in a lachrymose lad of 12 standing near a subway kiosk in West 42d street. He is a crying fool and there is no limit to his pathetic freshets. So much sympathy does he evoke he often picks up $10 in a day

Similarly Old Dan the Telescope Man has vanished from the evening sidewalk panorama of Washington Square. His cry "See Old Sirius the Dog Star—only a dime" was one of the familiar cries of the neighborhood [illegible] ward two brisk young men [illegible] on with a mammoth [illegible] near the library wall pointing the direction of the Empire [illegible]. Their patter is high [illegible] an appeal to the imagination [illegible] sweep the heavens one [illegible] Put yourself en rapport with [illegible] immensity of the unknown [illegible]

As one of the mossbacks whose courtesies were acquired in a [illegible] when ladies did not smoke I frequently flounder in the web of modern manners. In passing areas I unconsciously ignore women and am usually a [illegible] in those quick flurries when [illegible] lants fly to them with matches or briquets. I often [illegible] the most attentive [illegible] know is the waiter Harry [illegible] Lauren. In the years of happy marriage he has [illegible] after dinner cigarette his wife has smoked before passing it [illegible] There is a moving old [illegible] story about that. But it's [illegible] that sort.

Thingumbobs Grace T[illegible] lost some cash along with [illegible] in the bank crash. The [illegible] Gordons are summering in a [illegible] town in Holland. Pere [illegible] known head waiter is at the [illegible] dorf. S. S. Van Dine [illegible] his detective book royalties in [illegible] ing in "gilt edge" bonds [illegible] Lee Closser Hale at 60 keeps up to the minute on slang but [illegible] speaks it. Fred Stone and Dave Montgomery never [illegible] off stage. And never [illegible] reled. Billie Burke's [illegible] tour and film work has kept [illegible] away from New York for a [illegible] Hattie Belle Johnston [illegible] Spain's Isle of Majorca until autumn

An adventure in the [illegible] of circumstantial evidence has [illegible] a distinct impression. Waiting last night on a corner in a quiet neighborhood for a friend who had crossed the street to a phone I found myself in a moment of mental vacuity jiggling with the lock on a darkened shop door. As I hope to kiss a duck billed [illegible] if a policeman didn't pop out of nowhere. I slunk off in dripping desudation seemingly swinging his and kicking an imaginary object toward the gutter. Just a "[illegible] about town"—Copyright 1932 McNaught Syndicate Inc

The Marry-Go-Round

BY HELEN ROWLAND

MAN'S CURIOSITY—AND WOMAN'S

Women are gradually losing their inordinate curiosity about unimportant things, declares a psychologist chivalrously

But any married woman would like to know just why woman has for so long been exclusively credited with all the curiosity in the world. How and when did woman come to be known as "the curious sex?"

It is man's overweening inquisitiveness that has made men discoverers and scientists and inventors ever since the beginning of time. Eve may have taken the first bite of the apple—but it is a well known fact that Adam swallowed the rest of it so greedily that it stuck in his throat

A man always wants to know what makes the wheels go round. He is always taking his watch or his gun or his car apart to "see how it works." But a woman doesn't care how the radio or the vacuum cleaner or the electric clock works—just so it works!

No little girl ever asked as many questions in a week as a small boy can ask in 15 minutes. And if you will look over the crowd around any window where a new device or a new hair tonic is being demonstrated you will find at least 10 men to one woman watching to see what's going on

The truth is that woman is perfectly frank about her curiosity while a man always camouflages his with that "I'm only interested in your welfare" attitude which every man nobly assumes when he wants to know what's in his wife's letters or to find out what she is doing with her money or her time

When a woman wants to know what's in a suspicious looking mauve envelope which she has found in her husband's pocket she deliberately opens it and reads it. But a man sidles casually around back of his wife's chair and glances at her mother's letters over her shoulders

So long as there is plenty of money coming in and her husband gives her all she wants or needs a woman never asks a man what he does with the rest of his salary or his income. It's his isn't it? But did you ever know a man who could let a woman handle her own money without putting her through a questionnaire and demanding to know what she'd do with every dollar of it?

No woman ever snoops through a man's office desk as a man snoops through her kitchen [illegible] box. She doesn't want to know how he runs his business. But he's mightily concerned to know how she's running the house

True a woman always wants to know where a man has been where he's going what he's doing and if he still loves her. But the difference between masculine curiosity and feminine curiosity is not a matter of quantity but a matter of quality

A woman is curious only about the things that concern her heart her vanity and her happiness while a man is curious about everything. And he is never [illegible] until he finds out what makes the wheels go 'round

As far as woman is concerned the North Pole the South Pole and the Equator might have stayed there forever and she would never have bothered [illegible] for them. Unless of course [illegible] suspected that her husband [illegible] hanging around one of th[illegible] ings—Copyright 1932 King Features Syndicate Inc

WORLD'S CHAMPION GIRLS' SOFTBALL TEAM HERE JULY 10

CLEVELAND MIDVALE OIL GIRLS SLATED FOR SUNDAY CLASH

Columbus Colored Team Also Lined Up for Weekly Diamond Tourney

The world's championship girls softball team will play at Lincoln park in Marion on Sunday July 10 They are slated to perform in an exhibition contest against a boys combine at 3 p m

The Midvale Oil Girls is the name of the team and the club hails from Cleveland where in former seasons it has played under the name of Blepp-Coombs Favorite Knits The club has been national champions for six consecutive seasons

The Midvale Oil Girls have piled up a formidable record in softball competition since they invaded the diamonds six years ago When the team was first organized it competed only against girls clubs However it soon became apparent that girls teams were so much outclassed that boys would have to provide the opposition As a result the team has played 54 boys teams in the last three seasons and has won a fair percentage of games

The Midvale girls will oppose the Erie Mechanics of the Industrial league The Mechanics are not possessors of a very imposing record in city competition but will be strengthened with additional pitchers and also fortified at various other positions for the game Sunday

The Midvale girls are being brought here by Marion Hinklin promoter of the Sunday softball tournaments which have been staged at the North side park each week since Memorial day They are making a special trip from Cleveland for this game and are not on a road tour They will play one game only an exhibition tilt.

Coincident with the signing of the Cleveland girls for the game the announcement is made by Hinklin that the Whittaker Morticians, fast colored softball boys team of Columbus are scheduled to appear here on the same day as the girls combine The Whittaker Morticians are one of the fastest colored combines in the capital city and are noted for their ball playing and clowning at the same time

The colored team will play in a three-game tourney Sunday in which the other teams will be the Marion K of P lodge Van Wert and East Liverpool The July 10 program promises to be the best put on at Lincoln park to date this summer

Eagles Book Game.

IRISH FINALLY COP TILT BY 2-1 SCORE

Presbies Down Trinity To Hold Lead; Calvary Beats Clarkmen, 1-0, Bishops Top Lutherans, 7-6.

BY BOB KIRKPATRICK
Sports Editor The Star

As far as the standings are concerned the softball battle between the First Presbyterians and Trinity Baptist Sunday schools topped the four games played yesterday in the No. 1 church circuit However for get the standings and the 10 inning conflict between Lee Street Presbyterians and St Mary takes all the honors Those teams battled through three extra innings of warfare before the Irish finally squeezed over a run in the last of the tenth to win the struggle by a 2 1 score First Presbyterians held the league lead by trouncing the Baptists 7 1

Calvary reminded John Clark's No 1 Epworth team that an earlier 1-0 victory which was thrown out on the protest by the Methodists was no fluke by taking another victory yesterday by the same score Epworth Bishops grabbed a close game from the last place Lutherans but had to come from far behind to do it

A Torrid Battle

Lee Street and St Mary waged a terrific struggle before settling who was going to occupy second place and who was going into a tie for third Gene Gunder and Shorty Richards waged a great duel on the mound both giving up seven hits The hits were well scattered Lee Street brought its only tally across in the third inning but the Irish promptly tied it up in the fourth From this point until the last half of the tenth the battle raged with both sides playing brilliantly and neither able to score A walk and two singles proved the undoing of Lee Street in the tenth Eddie Simmons draws the honors of the day for his batting His homer gave the Irish their first run Ballenger singled to drive in the winning run

First Presbyterians had little difficulty in pounding out a victory over the Baptists Kimball Baptist flinger was touched for nine hits three of them for extra bases Don Shoemaker held the losers to three hits and struck out five batters

John Clark's proteges outhit Calvary by a 5 4 margin but couldn't make their hits account for anything and Calvary took a 1 0 decision Merle Vinden secured three of Epworth's hits Two of them were two baggers Wilbur Baldauf brought in the single tally when he doubled in the fourth and scored on an infield error

The Epworth Bishops did everything they could to hand a ball game to the Lutherans but the last place team was in an even more generous mood and simply refused to take it as a gift The Bishops took a lead in the first inning and then tossed it away in the second by allowing five walks and one hit along with a couple of errors The Lutherans scored six times in the one dizzy inning Jack Ling then took it on himself to put the Methodists back into the game by smacking a homer with two aboard The Bishops managed to crowd two more across and take a one run decision but it was more due to ragged playing on the part of the Lutherans than to anything else

PIRATES BOOST LEAD IN RACE BY TAKING CLASH FROM GIANTS

Corsairs Grab 10-Inning Game, 4-3, Reds Down Cubs in Only Other Game.

By The Associated Press

If their rivals will continue to feed them extra inning games, the Pittsburgh Pirates should have little difficulty sailing away the National league pennant

This notwithstanding the fact that many baseball men still cannot see the Corsairs as a serious contender even if they are out in front by two full games at this stage

The answer is simple the Pirates are making a practice of winning any contest that goes longer than the regulation nine innings. Nine times this season they have traveled past the regular closing time and in seven instances they have taken the decision

Bill Swift gave them their sixth straight 10 inning victory yesterday when he licked the Giants 4 to 3 in 10 rounds

The only other game on the big league calendar the last place Cincinnati Reds damaged the Cardinals 12 to 4 Red Lucas pitched his seventeenth consecutive complete game and kept 10 St Louis hits well segregated

There was no action in the American league

Just what effect is the loss of Carl Reynolds to the Washington Senators and of Bill Dickey to the New York Yankees going to have on the American league's pennant battle Reynolds as baseball fans are aware by this time is out of the game for at least six weeks with a fractured jaw said jaw having been fractured as the result of a hefty wallop by Dickey in a Fourth of July game Dickey is out of the Yanks lineup indefinitely on the order of League President Will Harridge for having assaulted Reynolds

How long Dickey will be out is uncertain but the consensus seems to be that it will be until such time as Reynolds is able to return to the game

Carl Reynolds was purchased by Washington last winter and since coming to the Nats has been generally regarded as the spark plug of the attack which has made a pennant contender of the Senators His loss may prove disastrous to the club unless his understudy comes through far better than expected

On the other hand Dickey has been performing sensationally behind the bat for the Yanks His power house hitting has helped the Yanks gain their big advantage over the field at this present date There is no one on the staff who can fill his post

Reynolds loss is likely to hurt the Senators more than Dickey's will hurt the Yanks inasmuch as the Yanks still have all kinds of clubbing ability left But still there is no one left to handle those Yanks twirlers the way Dickey has You can't laugh that off It wouldn't be surprising to see either team affected plenty by the incident

Recalling Dick Staley

Baseball fans who remember when Marion was playing baseball in the Ohio State league will remember Dick Staley a first baseman who played with the team when it was enjoying its best seasons Staley so the Sporting News a sports periodical advises died on June 22 in Danville Ill

Staley is generally considered to have been one of the best initial corner guardians to have played with Marion He was an elongated left hander a stellar fielder and a better than average batter

Old timers in baseball here recall that he was drafted by Connie Mack in 1909 to play with the Athletics but refused to report Causes for his failure to go to the big time differ Some say he feared being shunted to some other league than the Ohio State circuit if he failed to make good with the A's.

ASSOCIATION TEAMS OPEN 18-DAY STAND IN WESTERN CITIES

Columbus Starts First Series Against St. Paul; Millers Next.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO July 6—The American Association today opened an 18-day stand in the west, which was one reason why Donie Bush and his Minneapolis Millers expected to build up a championship lead

The Millers did reasonably well on the road sliding in and out of that slippery first place spot, but managing to slip in one game lead as the home stand opened with Toledo They suffered their most trying road series in Toledo losing four out of five and blowing off a three and one half game lead

Following Toledo which opened a four game series Columbus which today was in second place comes in for five games with Indianapolis the third place club due for a five game set. Louisville will close the home display with a four game series

EXPERTS ONLY

To Broadcast Future Fights, New York Commission Rules.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK July 6—Only "boxing experts" will be permitted to broadcast radio descriptions of matches in this state hereafter the New York state athletic commission has decided

The new rule is an outgrowth of the controversy over radio accounts of the recent Schmeling Sharkey bout in which Charles Francis Coe novelist and Graham McNamee announcer indicated Schmeling had gained a wide lead on points over Sharkey A majority of critics at the ringside also thought the German had won but the commission approved the decision that gave Sharkey the fight and heavyweight championship.

The commission said it considered a boxing or wrestling sports writer referee or judge competent to broadcast boxing or wrestling bouts

ARQUETTE PINNED BY ASHBY DESPITE LOSS OF FAVORITE HOLD

Dive from Ring Brings Downfall of Indian, Semi-Final Is Draw.

They barred Spike Ashby's favorite hold but that did not stop him from chalking up a win over Gordon Arquette the Indian in last night's wrestling feature before 600 fans at the Steam Shovel gym

Of course Ashby can't take all the credit for winning the match for Arquette placed himself at the door of victory by a wild dive out of the ring

It was one of the fastest bouts staged in recent weeks on the local mat Arquette apparently had heard of Ashby's reputation and started in immediately to batter the Chicagoan to pieces There were plenty of flying holds and Arquette was specializing on the tackle

The flying tackle gave Arquette the first fall in 23 minutes It took a lot of battering however before Ashby would give in Arquette seemed to be on the road to a victory in straight falls when after six minutes he started connecting again with his tackles All was well until he missed and went out of the ring He returned but was hurt too badly to put up a battle Ashby pinned him with a body chancery after slamming him once

Arquette attempted to stall long enough to fully recover and nearly succeeded But he was pinned with a crab hold in eight minutes

Nick Bozinis and Fred Moran wrestled 45 minutes to a draw in a match that offered more fun than the stellar clowns of a three ring circus

It was a fast bout with Bozinis winning the first fall in 16 minutes with a flying wrist lock The wristlock was Bozinis favorite hold and he used it quite effectively Moran tied the match when he knocked out Bozinis with a series of flying tackles

Red Campbell pinned Elmer Stone after 13 minutes of the preliminary

According to a Yale scientist who estimated the amount of change in the elements of rocks the earth is 1 832 000 000 years old
